

Digital Ad and Messaging Specs

MESSAGING STANDARDS

Digital Sponsor Messaging May Include:

- Business name, operating division or parent company
- Business street location, phone number and / or website
- Value-neutral product or service descriptions
- Event dates and locations
- Up to three trade names, product or service listings which help identify the business
- An established non-promotional corporate slogan
- Description of target market
- Length of time in business
- Call-to-action of a non-transactional nature. The call-to-action should not be the primary focus of the creative, not be visually intrusive, and not imply deadlines or discounts

Digital Sponsor Messaging May Not Include:

- Calls-to-action which direct the audience to call, to visit, to try or to compare
- Qualitative statements which involve subjective evaluation of quality (e.g. fine, great, rich or superb)
- Comparative descriptions or language (e.g. the best, bigger or faster)
- Favorable comparisons of a sponsor to competitors or industry standards (e.g. mentions of awards of recognition or merit)
- Pricing information (including “free”) and inducements to buy, sell, rent or lease
- Inducement-to-buy statements which direct the audience to purchase the product (e.g. free trial period or two for one)
- First or second person pronouns (e.g. I, me or you)
- The words “you,” “your” and “we.” The use of these words implies a relationship between the sponsor and the listener / web visitor
- Language that is considered promotional
- Coupons
- Expression of a viewpoint on a controversial issue
- Support of or opposition to a political candidate or ballot initiative

Sponsorship messages that seek to promote public media generally or align with the Nashville Public Radio mission are encouraged

All sponsorship material and copy subject to approval. Nashville Public Radio reserves the right to reject creative based on content or image. Creative should align with the noncommercial tone of public media.

DIGITAL STANDARDS

Lead Time & Trafficking
